

Learn to Sail at Sail Newport!

Adult Sailing Programs & Instruction Levels

- Courses include on-the-water instruction on Sail Newport's fleet of J22's.
- Adults may take as many courses as they wish to progress at each sailors pace.
- Space is limited, early sign-up is recommended.

Beginner/Learn-to-Sail: For first-time sailors, adults who have not taken previous formal instruction or for those who have spent time on boats but do not know how to skipper a boat on their own.

Skills Taught: Rigging and nomenclature, basic boat handling, sailing theory, gibling, docking and mooring.

Beginner-Intermediate and Intermediate: For those who have had some previous formal instruction, experience on the water, or are graduates of the Sail Newport beginner course.

Skills Taught: Continued emphasis on boat handling and sail trim in all wind conditions.

Advanced: For those who have spent significant time on the water in comparable boats or have completed formal instruction at the intermediate level.

Skills Taught: Advanced boat handling, speed and performance training, use of spinnakers and/or introduction to racing.
